

How to become a Registered Dietitian and Licensed Dietitian/Nutritionist in Florida

- Completion of a bachelor's degree from a U.S. regionally accredited university or college and a Didactic Program in Dietetics verification approved by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND).
- Completion of an ACEND accredited dietetic internship of 1200 hours of supervised practice.
- Pass the registration examination administered by the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR).
- Maintenance of the Registered Dietitian (RD) and the Licensed Dietitian/Nutritionist (LD/N) credential requires continuing professional education throughout your career.
- Licensure in the state of Florida requires successful completion of 900 hours of supervised practice in dietetics or nutrition, as described in subsection 64B8-42.002, F.A.C. Licensure applicants must also successfully pass the Registration Examination for Dietitians. Note: Registered Dietitians are automatically eligible to apply for licensure in Florida through application by endorsement. (64B8-42.001, F.A.C.)
